

PDST Advisor Health and Wellbeing (Post-Primary)

Job Description and General Notes

1. Overview

The Professional Development Service for Teachers (PDST) is a cross-sectoral support service under the remit of the Teacher Education Section (TES) of the Department of Education and Skills (DES) which offers professional development support to primary and post-primary teachers and school leaders. The work of the PDST contributes to school improvement by providing high quality Continuing Professional Development (CPD) on curricular and educational issues, fostering reflective practice and ongoing professional learning among teachers and school leaders.

Amongst the priorities for the Department of Education and Skills for the coming years are:

- Literacy
- Numeracy
- Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM)
- Embedding Digital Technologies in Teaching and Learning as per the DES Digital Strategy for Schools
- School Self-Evaluation (SSE)
- Health and Wellbeing
- School Leadership
- Post-Primary Subjects and Programmes

The PDST currently has full-time secondment opportunities for the position of Advisor for Health and Wellbeing (Post-Primary).

Advisors will provide local, regional and national professional development and support for teachers and school leaders in priority educational areas.

The closing date for applications is Thursday, 25 October at 3 pm

2. Job Description

The Advisor for Health and Wellbeing (Post-Primary) will typically carry out a range of the following tasks:

- Deliver and facilitate continuing professional development associated with national priorities to teachers and school leaders in a range of settings including: national seminars, evening workshops, school-based support, facilitated cluster meetings, communities of practice, teacher professional networks and on-line support
- Work with teachers and school leaders to promote and demonstrate exemplars of effective teaching and learning strategies, approaches and methodologies across a range of curricular areas
- Support the embedding of Digital Technologies into teaching, learning and assessment
- Facilitate personalised learning and support inclusive approaches to teaching, learning and assessment
- Provide advice and support teachers and school leaders in relation to school improvement, SSE and the development and implementation of the school improvement plan
- Contribute to design and the preparation of resource materials, including online materials, for professional development and support
- Contribute to the maintenance and development of existing web-based support
- Provide targeted professional development support, as required, following whole-school evaluation.
- Provide support for schools in relation to aspects of Section 24 of the Education Act 1998
- Co-operate, liaise and maintain effective communication with the national director, deputy directors, team leaders and participate in PDST meetings and team events
- Maintain records of all work activity and provide regular reports to relevant team leaders of continuing professional development support provided to teachers and school leaders
- Co-operate, network and collaborate as required with other relevant bodies (e.g. Teacher Professional Networks/Learning Communities, Third Level Institutions, Colleges of Education, the DES Inspectorate) in meeting the needs of teachers
- Collaborate with personnel in other support services (such as Junior Cycle for Teachers, the National Induction Programme for Teachers etc.)
- Work in partnership with education centre directors on collaborative projects and local initiatives
- Liaise and collaborate with other members of the team, associate trainers and local facilitators, as required, to ensure cohesion and consistency in service delivery and train and mobilise part-time personnel as required
- Co-operate with external evaluators of the service

Flexibility will be required from advisors to work in a number of areas. Consequently the duties to be undertaken by the advisors will vary in accordance with emerging needs and priorities.

3. Range of knowledge, experience and skills required

The ideal candidate will possess a range of competencies and skills to support the role, in particular:
